

Grants for Individuals

The Arts Council of Indianapolis is pleased to offer funding programs for individual artists and arts administrators. Grants for individuals include the Creative Renewal Arts Fellowship Program and our newest program for emerging artists, the Robert D. Beckmann Jr. Emerging Artist Fellowship. Before you begin work on either of these fellowship opportunities, be sure to read through the guidelines (including the eligibility requirements) carefully.

On these pages, you'll find all the information you need to complete your grant submission including guidelines and application materials, a toolbox of grant writing resources, and frequently asked questions.
